Ray's Remarks:

Greetings from Ndola, Zambia! I hope you all are well. I miss you all.

Things are going great here in Ndola and I am excited to say that the first intake of the Copperbelt School of Biblical Studies is under way. In fact we have now completed two days of school. The first was a day of orientation. The second was the first day of teaching. Great news, all of our new teachers did great and I was so happy and thankful that they all put the time into it and are obviously going to do a great job of training these new students.

We have three teachers: brothers Costain, Michelo, and Ziko (from the left to the right) We also have 10 students currently, but we still have 4 more on the way. Please keep them all in your prayers as some are still journeying to come to the school. Also pray for those who are already here as they are beginning their studies and as reality sets in.

Overall, I couldn't be happier with the school or the way things are going on here. God has certainly blessed this new venture and we thank Him and praise Him for it!

Finally, I wanted to thank two people who really helped me pull all of this off. First brother Scott Richards for helping to fund the entire project and work. Without his help none of this would have been possible.

Secondly, brother Webby Kenabanyama. Brother Webby has spent probably over two months in Ndola, staying on top of the project and getting all of the work done. He has done an excellent job building the new building and an excellent job redoing and upgrading the older building on campus. I love and appreciate this good brother for what he has done. Without his efforts this school would not have opened this week.

Well, I miss you all and love you. I look forward to seeing you all in about a week and ½, Lord Willing. Please continue to pray for me and the work here that all may be done for God, and unto His glory and praise.

Elders’ Corner:

The scripture plainly states that we are to "love one another with a pure heart fervently". (1 Peter 1:22) It's not so easy to do, but it is a must. The Apostle John said: "He who does not love does not know God for God is love". (1 John 4:8) We may not like a person's looks or personality, or how they are treating us, rightly or wrongly, but we must love them and show and express that love towards them. So let's put on Christ! You might be surprised how much benefit we will receive if we practice the command of God to "love one another", which includes everyone we meet who are in Christ or not!

Just last week, a lot of love was shown at the Sweetheart Banquet! All who were blessed to attend had a wonderful time. Special appreciation for all those who made the event possible. Sarah Cartwright did a wonderful job in organizing the event. Our own beloved young people served us in such a loving and caring way. Those who provided the entertainment did an exceptional job. Besides our wonderful youth group and their parents, thank you to Seth Hass, Julie Medley, Hannah Kirkland, Angi Moody, Theresa Hausladen, Cindy Sullins, and Becky Pool who each used their talents to help. It was such a wonderful occasion and meant so much to the elderly of KE. Thank you so much!!!!

On our hearts and minds are those who are struggling with health problems. Please remember these families in your prayers: Martins, Ewings, Robisons, and J. Sullins. Also, these individuals need to also be in our prayers: Meagan and Mary Sanders, Marcella Wake, Alice Drake, Mary Patchell, Betty Layton, Gary Dalton, Cheryl Ireton and others on our prayer list. Cards and visits are also needed.

Special event: Game night, Friday night beginning at 6:30. This is a great time of fellowship for the young people of our congregation as well as the adults. Try it, you'll like it.

Remember Ray and the new school in Zambia in your prayers. Ray will be back home next week, the Lord willing.
