Ray's Remarks:

Hello dear brethren!

I hope your week is going well and pray that we are all busy in the work of the Lord and as shining forth as lights in this world. I know that God is blessing us all according to our faith. May we always give Him our very best and put Him first in all things.

We certainly were saddened to hear about sister Mildred's passing. However, we also rejoice in her hope and the promises of God which she now enjoys. It's hard to imagine how difficult it is to be at the end of life and to be the one facing it. However, I do know that with God in our lives this step is much easier and many times, even a great joy to us as believers. Please remember that the funeral for sister Mildred will be this Friday at the building. The visitation is at 10 a.m. and the funeral will follow at 11 a.m. I hope many of you are planning to be there so we can show a good example to the family and we also will need a lot of help praising God together through song, the more voices the better. Anyway, please make plans to be a part of this gathering so that we might encourage the family of Mildred.

I also ask that you keep my mom in special prayer. She is just having a hard time getting her strength and mobility back this time after her last surgery. She does need prayers and encouragement. I'm sure some cards would also go a long way to encourage her. Anyway, God is good and always does what is best so let's all pray for her and that His will be done in all things.

Also, we rejoice to hear that sister Marcella is at home. She still needs prayers as she also has been struggling with this last health issue for well over a month now. Hopefully she is getting close to getting past it, although she does have a few new adjustments to make in her overall health. Anyway, remember our dear sister and please give her encouraging cards, calls and expressions of love as well.

Well, I hope to see you tonight at our mid-week gathering. I know it will be a wonderful opportunity to be together as God's people and to study and worship our God. I hope you are planning to be present. I love you all and God bless!
