Ray's Remarks:

Hello brethren!

I hope you all are doing well today. Can you believe it, temps are heading upward and by tomorrow and this weekend we are going to be in the 80's. The crazy Ozarks. Just when you think it cant get any more extreme, it does.

We have started a new quarter at the BIM. This quarter I am teaching the Preacher and His Work 8 and Greek 4. I am looking forward to a great quarter with our second year students. It's hard to believe that this is their last quarter and that they will be graduating soon; May will be here before you know it.

I'm also getting more and more excited about the upcoming lectureship. I think we are going to have a lot of our graduates back for the lectureship. It will be great to see them all and to hear those who are going to speak. We might have a few that need a place to stay for a night or two. If you would be willing to have someone in your home just let me know.

I was excited to get a call this week from Apologetics Press. Brother Ron Gilbert had mentioned our work to them and our need for Bibles and they have donated over 200 study Bibles to the Global Work. I just want to say a big Thank you to them and say how much we appreciate this important tool which we can use in evangelizing the world. If we are going to share the gospel we need to be able to actually give others a copy so they can have the word of God itself. What a blessing this is to our work in Africa.

We also receive thousands of free books from another great work, World Evangelism Publication. They provide all the books we want for free from their vast amount of books available from a variety of faithful brethren. We take as many of these as possible to Africa to teach and evangelize with. Some we also use as textbooks. Another big Thank you to this great mission effort. What a blessing they are as well to our work in Africa.

Well, I look forward to our gathering tonight. I hope you will all be present and ready to give God your very best. I love you all and see you tonight!

Elders' Corner:

It was good to be together this past Sunday. I was especially happy to see some of our sick able to return and be with us again, including John and Judi Martin, Marcella Wake and Ken Lee. There are still several others who were out due to sickness, please remember them in your prayers and even take the opportunity to visit those who might be struggling at this time.

I really enjoyed sharing about our Zambia trip with you all this past Sunday, including the pictures and stories of what we did during our time there. I hope you learned a little about the work that is going on there in Livingstone and are comforted and encouraged, as we were, knowing there are 21 men in Livingstone, and several others from all the other schools in Africa as well as here at the BIM who are training to be faithful gospel preachers for the Lord. Thank you for your support of this great work; I hope some of you will find an opportunity to go and see one of those schools in person. It may require stepping out of your comfort zone, but sometimes that is necessary for our spiritual growth.

In my last article, I made a mention and thanked our deacons and ministers for the good work they do. In this article, I wanted to continue my praise and thanks to others who labor together with us in the body here at Kansas Expressway. I want to thank Julie for the work she does as our secretary keeping us elders informed of the health of our members and for getting the bulletin and announcements prepared for each service, and thanks to Richard, Rose Mary and Julie Medley for the work they do keeping the build clean and the doors unlocked for each service. I recognize there are others who perform duties such as visiting members, keeping the pantry stocked, making cards of encouragement, and many other labors of love. I also want to extend a thank you to each and every bible class teacher we have here at K.E. The body is made up of many parts, each contributing to the good of the body. Thank you for being a contributing member of this congregation (Rom 12).

May God continue to bless us here at K.E.,

John and David
