K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Hello all!

I hope you are doing great this week and that God continues to prosper you all in your health and wellbeing, as you are putting Him first and giving your best to Him every day.

We had a blast on Saturday celebrating Emmett's 5th birthday. It's hard to believe that I have 4 grandchildren already with one on the way and even harder to believe one is already 5. God has certainly blessed my family and I am thankful for His rich and wonderful blessings. I hope and pray that Emmett and all of our grandkids will grow up putting God first and give Him their all. May God bless Emmett with a wonderful, blessed and long life in His service.

Things are going great this week with our meeting in Camdenton. Dad and Trey spoke Sunday morning and I spoke Sunday Afternoon. On Monday, Trey gave a great lesson on "Lifelong Love". I will be speaking this evening (Tuesday), and dad will finish up the meeting tomorrow night. It has been wonderful to be with the brethren this week and to see their love for God and one another. They have been a great encouragement to us all. We have also enjoyed spending time with brother Allen and his wife. Remember him as he continues to recover from a recent surgery. Also please pray for us as we continue to travel back and forth over the next few days.

I also noticed that we are only about three weeks away from our Bible Institute of Missouri Lectureship. I hope you all are planning to be a part. I am looking forward to a great time together of fellowship and growth. I also pray that we will have a lot of retuning graduates and visitors. Remember there will be a potluck on April 19th. Hope to see you all there.

Well, I hope you all have a great remainder of your week, remembering to put God first in all things. I also pray that God may continue to richly bless you all as you put Him first in all things. I love you all!

Elders' Corner:

*For I will pour water on him who is thirsty,
 And floods on the dry ground;
 I will pour My Spirit on your descendants,
 And My blessing on your offspring;
 They will spring up among the grass
 Like willows by the watercourses. Isaiah 44:3-4*

While it has certainly been unseasonably dry and hot the past few weeks, remember that Spiritual dryness is more dangerous than physical drought! Allow God to pour His presence into your life. It is refreshing!

As many of you know, we have sent members to Sedalia the past few years to help man a booth at the Missouri State Fair. The booth was reserved by the church in Sedalia and they used it as an opportunity to distribute tracts and literature concerning the Lord's Church and God's plan for mankind. This year, we have decided to try the same thing here at the Ozark Empire Fair. We will be sharing more information in the coming weeks. While we will be inviting area congregations to assist manning our table, we will be needing your support as well to make sure we have someone there to greet fair-goers and pass out literature. We are in the process of ordering tracts and literature to pass out at our booth. There will be opportunities to help purchase materials as well as volunteer your time to help spread the good news of the Gospel.

We are blessed here at Kansas Expressway with members who are willing to answer the call when help is needed. I second John's comments last week in his article about all those who help keep things going here. From our ministers to our deacons to our teachers and support staff, we are fortunate to have so many qualified individuals willing to serve.

Remember our sick and those on the prayer list. Marcella Wake, Carolyn Lee, Herman Cummings, Judi Martin and Odessa Johnson are all dealing with ongoing health problems. Also remember Scott Marriott in your prayers as his mother is dealing with declining health.

Next Sunday will be a 5th Sunday, with all funds over our budget being designated for our building fund. We have recently completed HVAC work upstairs so that both classrooms will be available and serviced by both heat and air conditioning. We will also be having a fellowship meal next Sunday after our morning service.
