K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Hello beloved of God! I hope you are all doing well and that this week is proving to be a wonderful one for you all in the service of God. God is certainly a wonderful and loving God and He is doing so much in each of our lives, we are definitely a blessed people.

Sunday was another great day of Worship. Thanks to all who came and were a part of the Lord's day! It was also wonderful to have several visitors with us on Sunday. We are blessed to regularly have those of like precious faith join us for services. However, it was equally exciting to have some from our area this past Sunday. How wonderful it is to share our faith with others. God is truly a good God.

Another blessing on Sunday was to share in the response of brother Ken Lee. He came forward asking for forgiveness and stated that we wanted to make sure that he was right with everyone. He also asked for prayers for strength as he continues to deal with his health trials, as well as the many health issues of sister Carolyn. Let's all be praying for him, and them both, as they face the daily trials of life, knowing that God will always be with them and help them in all things.

I received an exciting update from Zambia over the weekend. A congregation called the Martindale church of Christ had 10 baptisms on one day. Many of the students and faculty have been studying with some of the people there and had a great response on that day. This is the congregation which meets at where the school first started in Livingstone on the farm of Loyd and Pearl Henson. The farm is called the Martindale farm. Anyway, we are excited about this great news and I am always reminded of the great work that is going on daily in Africa for the sake of Christ. Furthermore, I am reminded how blessed we are to be a part of this great work and to see that so many souls are having the opportunity to respond to the true Gospel of Jesus Christ. Please pray for these new souls and continue to pray for the good work in Zambia and throughout Africa. May God's work continue to be done and may there continue to be a bountiful harvest for His sake.

Well, I hope to see you Wednesday night for our mid-week service. Until then, put God first in all things and know that He will continue to bless you in your faithfulness. I love you all.

Elders' Corner:

Hello to the saints of KE,

The summer is winding down. We are approaching the end of July, there is one more camp session directed by Brent starting Sunday July 28. We pray all goes well with this session and hope the campers will continue to grow in the faith and be more dedicated to the Lord.

As we wrap up this last session of summer bible camp, we continue with preparations for VBS. Sunday afternoon through Wednesday night we will cover 4 lessons on the name of Jesus. We appreciate all the work and effort teachers are putting into preparing themselves and their classrooms for the school. We thank them for decorating their classrooms along the lines of our theme to enhance the learning experience. Thanks as well for all the preparation each teacher is taking to teach each lesson. We also thank those who are helping with VBS, decorating the auditorium and hallways as well as those baking cookies and helping in the kitchen. It truly takes a group effort to accomplish such a task as VBS. Thanks for everyone's help.

We thank Ray and Brent for their lessons this past Sunday on the imaginations and intents of the heart and leaving a positive long lasting legacy for others to follow, just like the examples we find in the Hebrews chapter 11 cloud of witnesses. We did have one response this past Sunday. Ken Lee came forward asking for prayers on his and Carolyn's behalf. Ken continues to care for Carolyn at their home in Springfield and he is struggling to make decisions that affect them both in regards to her care. Ken also asked for forgiveness for any wrong he has done to others. Please continue to remember Ken and Carolyn at this time.

Also, we encourage you to remember John and Judy Martin as John has recently been in the hospital due to vertigo and nausea issues. He was sent home from the hospital, but continues to experience the same symptoms at home. Let's not forget Karen Ewing in our prayers as well as T-Roy Hass who has begun his full-time ministry in Blue Springs, and remember Roy Goddard as he continues his search for a full-time ministry work.

The fellowship hall and stairs are the next parts we are tackling in our flooring update project. We are hoping to begin those areas soon, depending on the contractor's availability. Thanks again for everyone's contributions that are making this project possible.

Our love until we meet again,

John, Jerry and David
