Thank You:

To our church family,
We are so overwhelmed with gratitude for the housewarming gifts we received from so many of you! The supplies will help us so much as we transition to our new home. We are truly blessed to have you wonderful people in our lives. The Lord always provides. May God bless you as you have blessed us.
We love you all for taking us in and caring for us.

Thank you, Casey, Molly & Cassie Rice

Apartment furnishings needed:

Jaryion, one of our new BIM students is needing some things to furnish his apartment. He has a desk and a bed. He could use a desk chair, either a small kitchen table/chairs or a couple of tall barstools, a kitchen trash can and living room furniture. See Jerry or Jaryion if you can help.

The Gift of Song

(Colossians 3:16; Hebrews 2:12; 13:15; Ephesians 5:19)

We come in through the doors of the church building,
Ready to offer praise.
To give the Lord honor and glory,
With our voices raised!

To give the Lord an offering,
Is not just money you see.
But to offer the fruit of our lips,
Singing, “From sin we have been set free!”

God doesn’t need stage lighting or smoke,
Or a great band who plays very loud.
He just wants to hear our voices,
Coming from the assembled crowd.

So please join us in singing,
With each voice doing its part.
Psalms and hymns and spiritual songs.
With joy coming straight from the heart.

Elders’ Corner:

Greetings brethren,
It is a privilege to work alongside you in the Kingdom as we strive to be “good and faithful” servants. We appreciate your willingness to be involved and to answer the call. Our goal is that we may all one day receive our eternal reward in Heaven.

We are in the midst of our Vacation Bible School which began Sunday. Our theme this year is “Truth Hunters.”
The elders deeply appreciate all who are playing a part in our VBS this year. The auditorium and hallway decorations are amazing. I especially liked the “red thread” throughout the hallways. I will be teaching about it Wednesday evening in the auditorium as we “Follow the Thread.” Our children look forward to VBS each summer and it would not be possible without the work of our members, both those who teach and lead and those behind the scenes. John 17:17 tells us to “Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth.” The more we understand that God’s word is truth, and how to defend it, the better equipped we will be able to convert the lost.

Thanks to all who assisted with our booth at the fair this year. I know many of you worked multiple shifts. At least one bible study was requested and countless souls were given the plan of salvation through our fans and literature that were distributed.

Remember that our Tuesday evening classes begin August 18 and continue through early November. They begin at 7 pm and will be covering, Understanding God’s Covenants, Law, and Judgment. You can attend in person at the BIM or join online. If you are unable to attend, archived lessons will be available on YouTube and Facebook. There are flyers on the foyer and South tables.

Keep Wanda McElfish in your prayers as she recovers from a fractured tailbone, and Cathy Fife who is recovering from a detached retina. Seth Hass, Shirley Blades, Herman Cummings, Sylvia Wood, Becky Pool and Kimmy Welch are all dealing with on-going health issues. Keep all of these in your prayers.

We look forward to seeing you at our next scheduled assembly.

David, John and Ray
