Ray's Remarks:

Hello dear brethren!

What a wonderful Lord's day we had this past Sunday. We had a lot of visitors, some from the local community and some from out of town. It was a great blessing to have both and to worship together on the Lord's day. It was also a blessing to share in a fellowship meal at lunch on Sunday. We had lots of good food and fellowship as God's people and what a blessing again to share it with our visitors.

Let me also say that it was good to have sister Kay Edwards back safely, after the loss of her grandson. I know we all love her and want to continue praying for her and encouraging her. May God bless her during this time of mourning.

We certainly praise God that His word has born fruit as there were two souls who obeyed the Gospel Monday night. Trey, along with Casey, Brent and myself have been studying with a young couple. His name is Andy Strong and her name is Lexi. They have been studying for many weeks and Andy and Lexi actually visited with us and worshipped with us on Sunday. After their study on Monday night they both were ready to obey the gospel and we thank God for this. They seem very sincere and ready to serve God and put Him first. I hope you will welcome them into our family as we should be seeing them on a regular basis now as they come for worship and as they continue to strive to grow in their walk with Christ.

We also had a sister join us on Sunday who was from Ghana. How wonderful it was to speak with her and to tell her about the school that we have there. Her name is Veronica. Remember we also have George who has been visiting with us for some time now. He is from Ghana as well and is a very nice and kind man. I hope you will get to know them both and make them feel welcome.

Please remember that the Tuesday night class is tonight at 7:00. Brother Allen Fish-grabe will be speaking tonight and leading our thoughts concerning the word, "Restoration". I hope you will come in person or join on-line. Please take advantage of this great opportunity to grow in God's Word.

Well, remember our mid-week service tomorrow. Another opportunity to gather as God's people and to study His word. I hope to see you all there. I love you all and God bless!

UNDERSTANDING
GOD’S COVENANTS, LAW, AND JUDGMENT

What Happens to Us at Judgment?

Elders’ Corner:
Greeting again my brothers and sisters, We had a great worship service this past Sunday. As brother Mark McCarty likes to say, it’s always good to be together with our family to worship God in spirit and truth. I enjoyed hearing about the Kenya and Zambia mission trip Ray and Jerry took in July, and the Ghana mission trip Ray and Trey took back in April. It’s very encouraging to hear the church in Ghana has grown to a couple hundred members. We continue to pray for their growth in bible knowledge and godly wisdom, and for their evangelistic efforts and their unity of the faith. These are the same things we desire and pray for when it comes to our congregation here at KE. My desire is that you each take advantage of the opportunities to grow in your knowledge and godly wisdom, and to be involved in evangelistic, benevolent, and edifying works for the Lord.

It’s also exciting to see visitors to our assembly, and this past Sunday we had several. I hope you took the opportunity to meet those visitors, as that demonstrates your love and concern for each of them, and it will leave them with a favorable impression of our church family. I was thankful to get the opportunity to sit and visit with one family after services as well as sit with them as we shared our lunch together. Potluck Sunday is a great opportunity to spend some time with your fellow brothers and sisters, getting to know them better, as well as getting to know the visitors who have joined us that particular Sunday. I would encourage you all to the take the opportunity to sit with our visitors during our potluck meal and share your friendship with them and make them feel welcomed.

Please continue to remember our sister Carolyn and Ken Lee, Wanda McElfish, Becky and Steve Pool, Kimmy and Cary Welch.

Look forward to seeing you at our next service, John, David, and Ray
